

2022 DALLAS BAR ASSOCIATION BENCH BAR CONFERENCE

September 29, 2022

Overview:

Partner Brent Turman is presenting “Ethics Lessons from HBO’s Succession” and Partner Tammy Wood is moderating “Building Relationships Post-Pandemic: In-House Counsel Panel” at the Dallas Bar Association Bench Bar Conference.

Date/Location:

“Ethics Lessons from HBO’s Succession”

Thursday, September 29, 2022

2:15-3:15 PM

“Building Relationships Post-Pandemic: In-House Counsel Panel”

Friday, September 30, 2022

10:15-11:15 AM

Event Details:

“Ethics Lessons from HBO’s Succession”

HBO’s hit series “Succession” follows a fictional media company led by a legendary patriarch. As the title suggests, the patriarch’s children are angling to seize the throne and succeed their father as the company’s CEO. In this presentation, Brent Turman tracks the power plays of the company’s c-level executives and general counsel, explaining whether their on-screen actions comply with specific ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct (spoiler alert: most of the time they don’t.). Through the lens of this captivating series, Turman provides an entertaining way for attorneys to obtain ethics credit.

"Building Relationships Post-Pandemic: In-House Counsel Panel"

- Moderator: Tammy Wood, Partner, Bell Nunnally
- Heather New, Senior Legal Counsel Appellate Litigation, AT&T
- Kelvin Sellers, General Counsel, Interstate Batteries
- Yuki Whitmire, Associate General Counsel, Vistra Energy

Related Practices

Litigation

Practice Area Contact

Brent A. Turman