

ARIANNA GOODMAN DISCUSSES AMBER GUYGER TRIAL ON ARKANSAS CRIME WATCH FOX 16

October 01, 2019

Arianna Goodman was recently featured on Arkansas Crime Watch Fox 16 discussing the Amber Guyger/Botham Jean case. She explores different elements of the trial, including the defendant's testimony, as well as the defense's "mistake of fact" argument.

Arianna focuses her practice on white collar criminal defense. She defends individuals and corporations in government and internal investigations, state and federal grand jury matters, and regulatory proceedings. She represents clients in a variety of federal criminal matters, including healthcare fraud, money laundering, anti-bribery and anti-kickback statutes, public and political corruption, tax violations, and other federal and state offenses.

To watch the full interview (begins at 4:05), please click here.

Related Practices

White Collar Criminal and Regulatory Defense