Litigation/Compliance Track:

Texas Business Courts – A New Era of Business Litigation in Texas

In 2023, the Texas Legislature created the state's first-ever Business Courts, designed to provide some specialization to sophisticated business disputes hitting certain thresholds. These courts will become operational for new cases filed after Sept. 1, 2024. This topic will cover how these courts will operate, how will they affect your company, what to expect over the first few years, and how to plan to take advantage of these courts.

Speakers: Heath Cheek, Partner and Nathan Cox, Senior Associate

Corporate/Transactional Track:

Enhancing Communications Between In-House and Outside Counsel – Industry Best Practices and Ethical Considerations (Ethics)

Drawing on his in-house experience, Jarod plans to address the following in his presentation:

- Outside Counsel's Perspective
- In-House Counsel's Perspective
- Balancing Budget Pressures and Aligning Business Interests
- Keeping Apprised of Regulatory Developments

Jarod will touch on ethical items such as:

- Rule 1.02: Scope and Objectives of Representation
- Rule 1.03: Communication
- Rule 1.12: Organization as a Client
- Rule 2.01: Advisor

Speaker: Jarod Moss, Partner
