

BELL NUNNALLY PARTNER BRENT TURMAN ACCEPTED INTO DRC'S "LEADERSHIP DALLAS" CLASS

August 10, 2022

Partner Brent A. Turman has been accepted into the 48th class of the Dallas Regional Chamber's (DRC) "Leadership Dallas" (LD) leadership development program. He continues a longstanding tradition of Bell Nunnally attorney involvement with the program. Partners Brent D. Hockaday, Benjamin L. Riemer, Danica L. Mathes and Kassandra G. McLaughlin are all Leadership Dallas Alumni.

Bringing together 55 leaders from a diverse group of companies and organizations across the region, LD is a nine-month leadership development program that includes a retreat, eight monthly topic areas with homework and a class project. The program "enables class members to develop a greater understanding of issues most important to our region, build strong relationships with business and community leaders, and empowers them to create the positive change needed to improve our region's quality of life."

To learn more about LD, please click here.

Related Practices

---

Entertainment, Advertising and Media
Litigation

Practice Area Contact

---

Brent A. Turman