

BELL NUNNALLY REPRESENTS DALLAS-BASED OIL AND GAS SOFTWARE COMPANY IN SALE

August 08, 2019

Bell Nunnally partners Ray A. Balestri and Andrew Dowdy and associates Peter J. Kosydar, III and Murphy Sayre represented client Archeio Technologies in its sale to Houston-based Quorum Business Solutions, Inc., a Thoma Bravo portfolio company.

Archeio Technologies is a Dallas-based provider of oil and gas document classification and smart search technology. Bell Nunnally counseled Archeio in all aspects its business since its founding in 2014, beginning with entity formation and initial financing and through its ultimate sale to Quorum.

"Bell Nunnally delivered dependable legal and business advice from start to finish. It was a great feeling knowing I had attorneys in my corner who I could trust and who could handle the complex needs of a technology company across the board," said Archeio CEO and founder Rex Womble.

"Rex's entrepreneurial mindset was on display since day one. It was rewarding to help him realize the benefits of his hard work," said Ray Balestri.
