

BELL NUNNALLY REPRESENTS PROSTAR ENERGY SOLUTIONS IN SALE TO CRETE UNITED

April 15, 2024

Bell Nunnally, led by Partner Andrew Dowdy and Senior Associate Joshua T. Smith, represented Frisco-based ProStar Energy Solutions in its recent sale to Crete United. ProStar Energy Solutions, founded by Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones and headquartered at The Star in Frisco, Tex., helps businesses save money by providing innovative, turnkey, energy-efficient and renewable energy solutions. Offerings include: LED lighting, patented IoT- and AI-powered controls and monitoring, solar, HVAC, mechanical systems, utility bill auditing and energy procurement services.

"Andrew and Josh are first ballot hall of famers," said Eric Sudol, President of Energy Efficiency at Crete United and CEO of ProStar Energy Solutions. "Their attention to detail and steadfast energy along the way were exceptional."

Charlotte-based Crete United is a leading provider of energy efficiency and HVAC, electrical and other mechanical ("MEP") services. Per a Crete United-issued press release, the partnership with ProStar Energy Solutions, "creates a powerful and effective new connected delivery model integrating Crete United's core HVAC, electrical and other mechanical services with ProStar's data-backed energy management-as-a-service for the built environment."

"Partnering with Crete United, a fast-growing company with established relationships and deep MEP expertise, is an amazing opportunity that will enable us to bring efficient energy management solutions to the built environment," said Sudol, in the Crete United release.
