

BELLNUNNALLY

33RD ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT LAW INSTITUTE

November 09, 2023

Overview:

Partner Brent Turman is presenting “Chatting ChatGPT” and Associate Vik Kadiri is presenting “On the Road Again: Legal Issues with Music Touring” at the 33rd Annual Entertainment Law Institute (ELI) at The University of Texas School of Law. The firm is also a proud sponsor of the conference.

Date/Location:

Thursday, November 9
7:30 AM – 4:00 PM

Friday, November 10
8:00 AM – 4:15 PM

The University of Texas School of Law
Austin, Texas

Event Details:

The 33rd Annual Entertainment Law Institute (ELI) continues to bring together an outstanding faculty of nationally-regarded practitioners and industry insiders to keep entertainment lawyers up to date on the latest emerging trends, issues and breaking developments in music, film, games and digital media.

Chatting ChatGPT

Presented by Brent Turman and Stephen Henderson

Get a fast-paced introduction to emerging AI technologies that lawyers need to know about, including a demonstration of these breakthroughs with a focus on the risks of using these technologies without understanding how they work.

On The Road Again: Legal Issues with Music Touring

Presented by Vik Kadiri, Stephen Henderson and David Shotts

Whether they're taking an Econoline van or a Gulfstream private jet, your music clients are bound to have questions relating to their tours. From insurance coverage to crew agreements to immigration issues and more, discover what you need to know to advise your clients properly.

Learn more information here.

Related Practices

Entertainment, Advertising and Media

Practice Area Contact

Brent A. Turman