

DIVERSITY LEADS: THE ROLE OF INTERSECTIONALITY IN DE&I EFFORTS IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

December 15, 2020

Event Details:

---

Senior Associate Saba Syed is a panelist for the “Diversity Leads: The Role of Intersectionality in DE&I Efforts in the Legal Profession” roundtable hosted by the American Bar Association Litigation Section.

Date/Location:

Tuesday, December 15, 2020
1:00 PM

Overview:

This roundtable focuses on Intersectionality and how intersectional identities have shaped pathways within the legal profession. The speakers will discuss their own experiences, as well as diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal profession and what their firms have done in particular to promote diversity during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Panelists:

- Bendita Cynthia Malakia, Hogan Lovells, Global Head of Diversity and Inclusion, Washington, D.C.
- Saba Syed, Senior Associate, Bell Nunnally, Dallas, TX
- Nathan Pearman, Hesse & Hesse, Dallas, TX (moderator)

For more information and to register, please click here.

Related Practices

---

Litigation

Practice Area Contact

---

Saba F. Syed