

JIM SKOCHDOPOLE TALKS STATE OF THE FIRM ON THE TEXAS LAWBOOK

November 20, 2018

Bell Nunnally Managing Partner James Skochdopole is quoted in The Texas Lawbook article titled, “TX Law Firm Leaders: 2018 is ‘Best Year Ever’ for Business ... So Far.” The piece talks about the robust state of the Texas legal market, and Skochdopole notes that Bell Nunnally is having “a record year.”

Among recent developments for Bell Nunnally are a major appellate verdict securing $5M for a trusts and estates client; a resounding trial verdict in favor of a major North Texas-based food exporter; and the upholding of a $70M international arbitration ruling on behalf of a renewable energy investor.

Bell Nunnally is one of the largest firms in North Texas by attorney head count, and it continues to grow, including the recent additions of partners Russell W. Mills (Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring), Jason S. Nardiello (Intellectual Property) and Jeffrey A. Tinker (Intellectual Property).

To read the full article (subscription required), please click here.

Related Practices

Corporate and Securities

Labor and Employment

Mergers and Acquisitions

Tax