

PARTNER KASSANDRA MCLAUGHLIN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CREW DALLAS

February 08, 2021

Partner Cassandra G. McLaughlin is the 2021 President of CREW Dallas – the oldest chapter of the national Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) organization, an international business network of more than 11,000 members dedicated to transforming the commercial real estate industry by advancing women globally.

CREW Dallas, with a membership of approximately 350, describes itself as “the leading organization for decision-making executive women, providing opportunities for networking, education, leadership development and civic/philanthropic involvement.” It showcases member expertise and successes and serves as a resource to its members and the commercial real estate industry. CREW Dallas' members represent all aspects of commercial real estate – offering direct access to real estate professionals across all geographies and disciplines.

McLaughlin, a member of Bell Nunnally's Real Estate and Commercial Finance practice areas, has been a member of CREW Dallas since 2002, and has served on its various committees as member and Co-Chair, as well as Director on the CREW Dallas Board. Cassandra received CREW Dallas' Future Vision Award in 2010 and is also a founder of the CREW Austin chapter.
