

PETER KOSYDAR ACCEPTED INTO DAYL'S 2018 LEADERSHIP CLASS

August 08, 2018

Bell Nunnally attorney Peter J. Kosydar, III has been accepted into the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers' (DAYL) 2018 Leadership Class. The program, started in 1997, is designed to bring together young attorneys from across North Texas who want to make a difference in their community and at the bar. Classes are limited to 40 and activities include an introductory happy hour; an overnight retreat; a series of luncheons where members learn more about Dallas and opportunities for involvement with non-profits, the bar association and city politics; and a class project benefiting the community. The Leadership Class is one initiative of the DAYL, an organization comprised of approximately 3,000 young attorneys across the region "dedicated exclusively to the needs of young lawyers and the community service projects about which they are most passionate."
