UNDERSTANDING THAT EACH CLIENT'S SITUATION IS UNIQUE, MEREDITH APPROACHES MATTERS WITH A THOUGHTFUL AND THOROUGH ANALYSIS, LEADING TO SOLUTIONS TAILORED TO THEIR SPECIFIC NEEDS.

Dedicated and detailed-oriented, Meredith joins the Bell Nunnally litigation team. Her background includes summer associate experience and internships in both private practice and the courts, as well as the United States Office of Special Counsel. Through these diverse experiences, she has conducted research on topics as varied as criminal defenses, court opinions, regulations, rules and administrative decisions, and executive orders. She has drafted a range of legal documents, including motions, responses and memorandums. Meredith served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Jeffrey Vincent Brown of the Southern District of Texas.

With an early interest in communications, Meredith has experience as a marketing and communications intern for the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce and as a public and alumni relations intern for Baylor Law School.
