

LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT ASSOCIATE

Bell Nunnally is seeking an experienced labor and employment associate for its growing office in Dallas. Candidates will have 3 or more years of experience in a variety of labor and employment matters including both counseling and litigation. Ideal candidates will have strong academic credentials as well as hands on experience working directly with clients on matters such as severance agreements, handbook drafting, internal investigations, hearings and arbitrations. Candidates must be admitted and in good standing with the Texas bar.

With a history of success spanning more than four decades, Bell Nunnally stands out as one of the most respected business law firms in Texas and is among the largest in North Texas by attorney head count. The firm's profound legal knowledge and extensive experience set it apart, solidifying its reputation as Behind Every Great Company™. A member of the global law firm network Legalink, Bell Nunnally offers a comprehensive range of services, including litigation, appellate law, commercial finance, corporate and securities, creditors' rights, bankruptcy, health law, intellectual property, labor and employment, immigration, real estate, entertainment, mergers and acquisitions, estate planning, tax and white-collar criminal defense. Recipient of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) "Compass Award," featured as one of Law.com's "Mid-Market Pro 50" and a multi-year honoree among the Dallas Morning News' "Top Workplaces," Bell Nunnally continues to be recognized for its commitment to diversity and excellence.

We offer a strong benefits package including covering both health and dental premiums for our employees, paid parental leave and 401(k) matching.
